

The hotel's original brick façade fits in perfectly with the historical streetscape.

ABOVE: Treadwell Cuisine, the on-site restaurant, features fresh, farm-to-table fare from Niagara producers.
BELOW: The lobby has a sleek, contemporary feel.

CHECK-IN

124 ON QUEEN

A luxe hotel and spa comes to wine country.

Boutique hotel and spa 124 on Queen in Niagara-on-the-Lake, Ont., is the town's new luxury destination. Owners David Jones, who grew up in the area, and Nick Capasso bought up the former 17-room hotel in the Old Town in 2011 and recently did a three-year-long renovation and expansion. Today, the now 72-room hotel boasts modern style and upscale amenities while preserving the historical building's authentic character. "We live here, we're a part of the community, and we care deeply about our town," says David.

STAY IN STYLE: Book one of 30 luxury guest rooms or choose a signature one-bedroom suite outfitted with a kitchen, fireplace, king bed and double vanity. Suites feature cedar-lined closets, Stearns & Foster mattresses and marble-clad bathrooms for a luxurious experience. 124 on Queen also has a wedding event space, and the elegant restaurant, Treadwell Cuisine, serves outstanding local wines. AT YOUR SERVICE: The hotel's 12,000-square-foot spa is the first of its kind in the area. The rejuvenating hydrotherapy circuit includes hot and cold pools, sensory experience showers and a snow "cave." This room offers a meditative experience, gently restoring the body to a normal temperature after a sauna. Coming soon are an outdoor yoga area, spa cabanas and reflecting pools. Rooms from $259/night. 124queen.com.

LEFT: The hydrotherapy spa is ideal for unwinding.
BELOW: The signature suites have all the amenities of a mini condo.

