Ritz-Carlton Montreal Offers Hot Winter Savings

SHARE

February 12, 2015 -

If the freezing temperatures and mountains of snow are not enough to induce chronic hibernation, Ritz-Carlton Montreal is giving guests even more incentive to check-in and snuggle up indoors in front a roaring fire.

The hotel's newest package, "The Colder the Better", is available for all suites with fireplaces, where guests automatically save a percentage off their room rate based on the temperature outside at check-in, when below zero. Minus 25 degrees upon check-in? Save 25 per cent. If the mercury dips further, save even more. Visitors from the U.S. stand to benefit with even greater savings, what with the U.S. dollar going strong against the Canadian, making it the perfect time to travel north of the border.

With late winter and early spring temperatures in Montreal typically hovering around minus 10 celsius, Ritz-Carlton Montreal's "The Colder the Better" package equips guests with everything needed for the perfect night in the city, without the frostbite. The package includes: suite accommodation with fireplace; herbal teas or hot chocolate; chocolate-flavoured marshmallows and spiced Speculoos cookies in-room; cocktails at Maison Boulud; breakfast at Maison Boulud; complimentary parking; complimentary late checkout; plus, a discounted room rate based on the below-zero temperature outside on the day of arrival. The suite package is available until April 30, 2015, and priced from $695 per night based on single occupancy, and from $720 per night based on double occupancy.

To boot, the nip of winter will be kept at bay as Ritz-Carlton Montreal keeps guests toasty throughout their stay, with not just one or two roaring fires at the hotel, but four. The first, in suite, is best paired with marshmallows, cookies and plush robes. The second, a grand fireplace in the historic Palm Court lobby, accompanied with tea or hot chocolate. Find the third at Maison Boulud restaurant and bar, best enjoyed along with a warming cocktail. Up on the rooftop terrace, the fourth comes with stunning city views.

Ritz-Carlton Montreal has mastered the perfect winter retreat since opening its doors in 1912 as the first hotel in the world to combine the Ritz and Carlton designations, and only one of four designed by César Ritz himself. The hotel was recently awarded AAA Five Diamond status, "Best Hotel in Canada" by U.S. News & World Report, and the Forbes Travel Guide Four-Star Hotel rating. Today it remains at the social heart of the city, attracting discerning guests from Canada and around the world.

"The Colder the Better" terms and conditions: Package is subject to availability and cannot be combined with any other offer. Advance reservations are required; rates do not apply to groups. Rates listed are per room, per night, single or double occupancy, and exclusive of taxes, gratuities and other charges unless otherwise noted. Inclusions cannot be reimbursed or exchanged if not used. Inclusion must be used during stay and cannot be used towards another stay.
