The 124 on Queen Hotel & Spa, located in historic Niagara-on-the-Lake, has unveiled its new spa — The Spa at Q.

The 12,000 square foot spa houses a welcome centre and boutique, relaxation lounge, treatment rooms, fitness centre, restorative Himalayan salt room, and a wellness hydrotherapy circuit.

Daphne Swenerton, the Spa Director, said: “My team and I are working with enthusiasm to translate our core values of emotional hospitality, sustainability, and wellness into a dynamic context. For us, high quality and luxury include out-of-the-ordinary experiences that celebrate a sense of wellbeing and conviviality.”

124 on Queen Hotel and Spa is an oasis amid the hustle-and-bustle of historic Queen Street in Niagara-on-the-Lake; located near iconic landmarks such as the Shaw Festival theatres, wine country, and scenic waterfront trails.

The owners, David Jones, who grew up in Niagara-on-the-Lake, and Nick Capasso, are committed to preserving the heritage of the property and adding to the vibrancy of the region.

Said Jones: “We live here, we’re a part of the community, and we care deeply about our town. We set out to create a place where people can make memories – weddings, family weekends, escapes with friends, and more. This is a unique town that blends cultural events with fine food and historic beauty. We’re proud to debut our new spa and look forward to welcoming the world to Niagara-on-the-Lake.”

Available now on stays through April 6, the February Flash Sale includes overnight accommodations, a $124 resort credit and 15% off at the 124 on Queen Starbucks. The resort credit is applicable for the Spa at Q treatments, the Hydrotherapy Circuit, Treadwell Cuisine and the Q Lounge & Bar.
