Living large at the Four Seasons

The West Penthouse of the new four Seasons Hotel and Private Residences recently became the most expensive condominium sold in Canadian history. Canada's most exclusive condominium residence was purchased by an international buyer for $28 million. The penthouse residence occupies the top floor of the 55-storey West Residence building, and encompasses 9,038 sq. ft. of living space. The suite features 12 ft. ceilings, floor-to-ceiling glass gallery and four expansive corner terraces. Included in the price is a staff residence, located in the adjacent, 26-storey East Residence building. Located at the northeast corner of Bay Street and Yorkville Avenue, Four Seasons Hotel and Private Residences Toronto is a landmark mixed-use development featuring a world-class hotel and 210 private residences in two sleek 55- and 26-storey towers.

Wineries of Niagara-on-the-Lake launches new site

The official site of the 26 wineries of Niagara-on-the-Lake has revamped its site and it's looking better than ever. The new site has a live newsfeed, 24-hour weather monitoring, interactive and downloadable maps, as well as information about transportation and accommodation. If that wasn't enough, use the Plan Your Getaway tool that allows you to map out your trip by placing a suitcase on the location of any of the 26 wineries you want to visit. If you don't know where to begin, the site includes ready-made touring itineraries and an events calendar that is searchable by winery, date, and event type.

Mild, Medium and Spicy travel packages

Want to go on a new adventure this year, but not sure where to go or what to do? Choose from this trio of travel suggestions tailored for the "mild, medium, or spicy" traveler. Feeling leisurely? Then the mild Rocky Mountaineer's First Passage to the West package offers stunning views of Canada's great landscapes through a trail first traveled by 19th century explorers. Enjoy breathing taking scenery on one of the world's top train trips from the comfort of your seat. For a mix of leisure and action try the Tradewinds Experience. Sall away on a luxury catamaran, enjoy meals prepared by a private chef, all while snorkeling, scuba diving, or kayaking at your own will. And finally a spicy adventure, designed for the real risk-taker. Join One&Only Cape Town and get up close and personal with white sharks while shark cage diving. If the water's not for you, head to the air and try skydiving, hang-gliding and more. All that's left is for you to figure out your adventuring flavour: are you mild, medium, or spicy?
